Market commentary

Global Markets continued on a downward slope in August. We saw a material correction in equity markets on fears of a double dip recession in the US and lingering concern over EU sovereign debt woes. The MSCI All Country World Index lost 7.30% as Emerging Markets and Developed Markets fell by 8.94% and 7.05% respectively. The Citigroup Global Government Bond Index extended gains, advancing a further 2.07%.

The US raised its debt ceiling and approved federal spending cuts on 2 August in order to avoid a sovereign default. However on 5 August, Standard & Poor's cut the long term US credit rating for the first time ever from AAA to AA+ on concerns of growing budget deficits.

US unemployment dropped unexpectedly as non-farm payrolls rose above expectations. CPI remained above the target level at 3.6%, and Q2 GDP was revised down to 1.00% from a downwardly revised 0.4% in Q1. Interest rates were kept on hold at the FOMC Meeting, and Fed Chairman Ben Bernanke indicated that there would be no hike until at least mid-2013.

EU CPI remained above target at 2.5% while Q2 GDP grew less than expected at 1.7% (from 2.5% in Q1). Unemployment rose to 10% with peripheral countries like Spain remaining the highest at 21.2%.

As safe haven currencies, the Japanese yen and Swiss franc continued gains against the US dollar, as did the euro. The US dollar however strengthened against emerging market currencies on risk aversion.

Offshore equities are attractively valued at current levels and we feel it is a good buying opportunity. We therefore maintain an overweight position in global equity and seek to add further into current weakness.

■ Risk warnings and important notes

Collective investments are generally medium to long term investments. The value of units may go down as well as up, and past performance is not necessarily a guide to the future.

Collective investments are traded at ruling prices. Commission and incentives may be paid and, if so, would be included in the overall costs. All performance is calculated Total Return, Net of all fees and commissions and in US Dollar terms. Weekly Forward pricing is used.

A fund of fund collective investment scheme only invests in other collective investments, which levy their own charges.

Fluctuations in the value of the underlying funds and the income from them and changes in interest rates mean that the value of the Fund and any income arising from it may fall, as well as rise, and is not guaranteed.

Deductions of charges and expenses mean that you may not get back the amount you invested.

The fees charged within the Fund and by the managers of the underlying funds are not guaranteed and may change in the future.

Higher risk investments may be subject to sudden and large falls in value in comparison to other investments. Higher risk investments include, but are not limited to, investments in smaller companies, even in developed markets, investments in emerging markets or single country debt or equity funds and investments in high yield or non-investment grade debt.

Notwithstanding ongoing monitoring of the underlying funds within the Fund, there can be no assurance that the performance of the Fund will achieve its stated objectives.

The Fund may contain shares or units in underlying funds that invest internationally. The value of your investment and the income arising from it may therefore be subject to exchange rate fluctuations.

The Fund may contain shares or units in underlying funds that do not permit dealing every day. Investments in such funds will only be realisable on their dealing days. It is not possible to assess the proper market price of these investments other than on the fund's dealing days.

Certain unregulated Collective Investment Schemes may permit a greater degree of leverage than is permitted with investment funds that are available to the general public in South Africa. Such Collective Investment Schemes have a greater underlying volatility, which increases the risk of loss.

Investment in the Fund may not be suitable for all investors. Investors should obtain advice from their financial adviser before proceeding with an investment.
