Market commentary

Global markets continued their downward trend through December given sustained volatility around the European debt situation. Emerging markets led the decline by 1.21%, steering a 0.20% drop in the MSCI AC World index, while Developed markets lost a mere 0.06%. The Citigroup Global Government Bond index fared well amid uncertainty, gaining 0.86%.

It was a reasonably quiet month in markets with movements to the up- or downside being driven primarily by news surrounding the EU.

The ECB has cut rates a second time, decreasing the lending rate back to 1.00%, effectively reversing the 50bps hike during 2011. Commentary surrounded a possible further cut by the European Central Bank (ECB) in the near-term, as the Eurozone moves towards recession. EU CPI remains at 3.00%.

A different scenario plays out in China, as CPI declined further to 4.20% from 5.50%, as measures by the People's Bank of China (PBOC) to curb the over-heating economy come to fruition.

US GDP dropped to 1.80% in the third quarter, from 2.00%. US CPI also saw a small unexpected decline from 3.50% to 3.40%. The US Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) kept rates unchanged.

The US dollar gained traction against the Euro on the back of uncertainty surrounding the EU debt situation.

We maintain our overweight offshore equity position and remain underweight fixed interest.

■ Risk warnings and important notes

Collective investments are generally medium to long term investments. The value of units may go down as well as up, and past performance is not necessarily a guide to the future.

Collective investments are traded at ruling prices. Commission and incentives may be paid and, if so, would be included in the overall costs. All performance is calculated Total Return, Net of all fees and commissions and in US Dollar terms. Weekly Forward pricing is used.

A fund of fund collective investment scheme only invests in other collective investments, which levy their own charges.

Fluctuations in the value of the underlying funds and the income from them and changes in interest rates mean that the value of the Fund and any income arising from it may fall, as well as rise, and is not guaranteed.

Deductions of charges and expenses mean that you may not get back the amount you invested.

The fees charged within the Fund and by the managers of the underlying funds are not guaranteed and may change in the future.

Higher risk investments may be subject to sudden and large falls in value in comparison to other investments. Higher risk investments include, but are not limited to, investments in smaller companies, even in developed markets, investments in emerging markets or single country debt or equity funds and investments in high yield or non-investment grade debt.

Notwithstanding ongoing monitoring of the underlying funds within the Fund, there can be no assurance that the performance of the Fund will achieve its stated objectives.

The Fund may contain shares or units in underlying funds that invest internationally. The value of your investment and the income arising from it may therefore be subject to exchange rate fluctuations.

The Fund may contain shares or units in underlying funds that do not permit dealing every day. Investments in such funds will only be realisable on their dealing days. It is not possible to assess the proper market price of these investments other than on the fund's dealing days.

Certain unregulated Collective Investment Schemes may permit a greater degree of leverage than is permitted with investment funds that are available to the general public in South Africa. Such Collective Investment Schemes have a greater underlying volatility, which increases the risk of loss.

Investment in the Fund may not be suitable for all investors. Investors should obtain advice from their financial adviser before proceeding with an investment.
